The PRABON Greenfields Partnership

Prabon Greenfields Partnership

Prabon Greenfields is a joint-venture of Asanteman and Vital Capital, set-up in the year 2014 to design and build a gated community project of 500 houses.

Prabon Greenfields has the vision to be the trusted real estate partner for Ghanaians, Diasporans and Expatriates.

The mission of the company is to develop unique living concepts that embody the essence of the Ashanti region, addressing the housing deficit by providing integrated environments for all of society, complemented by outstanding customer service.

Asanteman

Working for the benefit and prosperity of the Ashanti People

His Majesty, Otumfuo Osei Tutu II, the Asantehene, seeks to undertake and promote business ventures dedicated to the furtherance of the interests and welfare of the People of the Ashanti. Asanteman's involvement in the Prabon project is yet another step in his ongoing dedicated effort to improve the quality of life and community settings of the Ashanti people.

Vital Capital Limited

Fund Investing for Impact

Vital Capital is responsible for the successful development of a diverse portfolio of community and infrastructure projects throughout sub-Saharan Africa. For over two decades, it has focused on long-term master planning and high-quality execution to meet critical community priorities. Our impact investment is characterized by a continuous effort to balance community and environmental needs that involve water, energy and waste conservation. We enter into partnerships based on shared values and mutual trust, and ensure that quality and attention to detail are inseparable components of our commitment to advancing the lives of people in modern Africa.

Beyond the Decade

The information contained in this brochure, especially images of built houses, external areas, infrastructure and client services, correspond to the reality existing in the community.
